THE YEAR BEGINS

Life for a school begins in the fall! Then long-silent halls echo once more to the click of heels and the calling of greetings. Class rooms shake off their summer somnolence and are opened to light and air. But in the vanguard of the student body come the teaching staff, the administrators, the office staff. Theirs is the task of breathing the first breath of life into the silent buildings, of readying myriad details which are vital to this continuing process we call education. Here is truly where "The Year Begins."

For the past six years Mr. Carter L. Burns, left, has been the principal of Rosedale high school. During this time Mr. Burns has worked diligently to help students and parents alike solve any problem they might have which involved school.

"My door is always open," is a familiar statement often repeated by Mr. Burns to assure students, faculty members, and parents that he will guide and assist them in any way he can.

The Principal and His Secretary

One of the busiest women at Rosedale is Mrs. Elsie Leighton, secretary to the principal. Mrs. Leighton does typing work, takes dictation, and does numerous other jobs. Yet, no matter how busy she is, if a student, faculty member, or parent goes into the office and asks her for assistance she is always willing to oblige.

May I Help You?

Mrs. Frankie Steinke, school treasurer, is responsible for keeping books in order, writing out vouchers, and selling tickets to school events. She also works in the main office when she is needed.

Mrs. Katherine Hunter is registrar at Rosedale. Among her many duties, Mrs. Hunter is responsible for keeping students' permanent records up-to-date and sending transcripts.

Miss Carol McClain is attendance clerk. Her duties include counting the absentee slips and calling students' homes to find out why they were absent from school.

For the second year, Miss Marjorie Carstens has been school librarian. Aside from checking out books and ordering new ones, Miss Carstens devotes much of her time to helping students find information for reports.

Mrs. Sue Klingler, school nurse, has duties which include wrapping sprained arms and talking about personal hygiene to homemaking and health classes. Mrs. Klingler has been school nurse at Rosedale for two years.

The Councils

Whoa! Slow down! This is not a race track! These are familiar words used by Student Council members when the occasion arises. The primary aim of the Council is to promote and regulate student participation in the school activities. The group sponsors a play during the year, and supplies guides when visitors are entertained by the school. Officers of the Council were Martha Collins, president; Jesse Dominguez, secretary; and Bob Hines, treasurer. Miss Esther Nicklin is sponsor of the Council.

Corresponding to the senior high Student Council is the governing body for the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades, the junior high Council. Their goals are similar to the upper class group, however, their services are directed to junior high activities. Officers of the council were Bill Marsee, president; Richard Martin, vice-president; Joe Salazar, secretary; and Diana Swearingen, treasurer. Sponsor of the group is Mrs. Helen Fosmire.

The preceding pages have shown many of the faces which compose the student body of Rosedale High School. The pictures on these two pages show students and teachers at work. Since most students spend six hours a day at Rosedale for 180 days a year, the class work and teachers become a part of their life.

Classes Are People!

All classes such as these shown here, attempt to teach subject matter as well as stimulate a desire for learning. Students may learn how to use a T-square, make a dress, or determine the differences between a jelly fish and a vertebrate. It would be difficult to imagine a school without classrooms, but it would be more difficult to imagine classrooms without pupils.

DEBBIE

AUTUMN BRINGS ACTIVITIES

A school stirs itself in the autumn! It reaches out to bring in the things which give it life and vitality—the thudding pads and shouts of football, the first tentative footlings of the band, the organizational sessions of the early clubs, the greetings of friends almost forgotten over the summer, all the bustle of awakening life. For here is the lifeblood of the institution—the students and their reaching out for new opportunities and new horizons. This is the American school at work in all its myriad aspects, understanding anew that “Autumn Brings Activities.”

Let's go! Fight, win! These familiar words shrilled by the Martyan Pep club spur the teams on throughout the year.

Victories and good sportsmanship alike are encouraged by the faithful Martyans as they cheer football, basketball, and track teams enthusiastically.

Serving as officers this year were Joyce Keeler, president; Deanna Richardson, vice-president; Mary Abbott, secretary; Delores Lang, treasurer; Carol Ladd, first sergeant-at-arms, and Vickie Olinger, second sergeant-at-arms.

The officers and members of the club keep busy preparing pep assemblies, making posters, announcing games, chartering buses for away games, and checking out sweaters to the members.

Miss Helen Priestly is head sponsor, assisted by Miss Shirley Murray, Miss Beverly Semmens, Mrs.

Ralph Brightwell.

Pictured below are three of the varsity cheerleaders, the promoters of the Pep club's school spirit. The girls are Rhoda Gorthy, senior; Carolyn Mendenhall, junior and head cheerleader; and Sandra Carter, also a senior. This is the first year for the three girls as varsity cheerleaders.

The cheerleaders are chosen by a group of faculty members and the Pep club executive committee at the end of each school year. They serve one year, and then must again try out to become a cheerleader for another year. You can be sure there are many disappointments.

Let's Go!

Rhoda Gorthy

Carolyn Mendenhall

Sandra Carter

Fight, Win!

Pictured below are the remaining three of the varsity cheerleading squad. They are Martha Collins, senior; Donna Dennett, junior; and Linda Lane, senior. Of the six, Miss Dennett and Miss Mendenhall will probably be back to try for the position again next year.

The cheerleaders' duties consist of stirring up school spirit, leading cheers at pep assemblies and all games, and promoting the Pep club in general.

A very important part of the senior high Pep club are the B-team cheerleaders, pictured on the following page.

The name of this group of girls is derived from the persons they cheer for, the B-team basketball squad.

Their duties are similar to those of the varsity cheerleaders, with one exception: they must be prepared to fill in if one of the varsity squad should be absent.

Miss Joyce Keeler was this year's Pep club president. In order to give her due recognition her picture has been inserted on this page.

Joyce Keeler

Many people do not realize the time and work spent to keep up the office of Pep club president. This office, as in any club, is the most important and requires the most effort.

Miss Keeler had the responsibility to taking charge of the Pep club meetings, seeing that the other officers did their duty, making posters for the halls, and a score of other duties.

Some people may think the vice-president has nothing at all to do. Not so! Miss Deanna Richardson, vice-president, had the task of preparing pep assemblies. She also assisted Miss Keeler in painting the game posters.

Martyan Helpers

The cheerleaders are a very important part of the junior high Pep club, just as they are in the senior high. These girls led their club members in the cheers and chants, helping their teams on to many victories. The junior high cheerleaders pictured center left are, left to right: George Ann Vergenz, Janice Hughey, Nancy Bosley, Jo Anna Shipley, Diana Swearingen, Judy Grauberger, and Sherry Kurfman.

Pictured below, right, are the B-team cheerleaders. These girls are selected from the senior high and are the second A squad. They cheer for the B-teams in all sports and fill in for any varsity member who is absent. They constitute the backbone of the cheering section during the varsity games. Members of this group may be either sophomores or juniors. Pictured are, front row, left to right: Patty Murphy, Pat Haag, and Helen Martin. Back row, left to right: Shar-Morrisette.

Safety Promoters

Junior high Pep club members perform corresponding duties to the senior high Martyans. The only difference is that they direct their attention to all seventh, eighth, and ninth grade sports.

Pep club officers for this year are Patsy Neice, president; Janice Hughey, vice-president; Rhonda Hunter, secretary; Jeannie Crystal, treasurer.

The sponsors are Mrs. Ernestine Blass, head sponsor, Mr. James Shepherd, Mr. James Cross, and Miss Miriam Perry.

The overall goal of the Safety club is to "make students safety-minded" in their driving habits. This goal is advocated by the Safety club sponsor, Mr. Richard Kohler, and the officers of the club.

All students driving to school must belong to the Safety club, and must have their car safety-checked. The club provides parking stickers, which all students must have posted on their cars. "You Are Morally Responsible for Safe Driving" was the theme of the mid-year drive launched by the club as a part of a state-wide traffic safety drive to cut down fatalities in Kansas.

COACH WALTER DAVIES

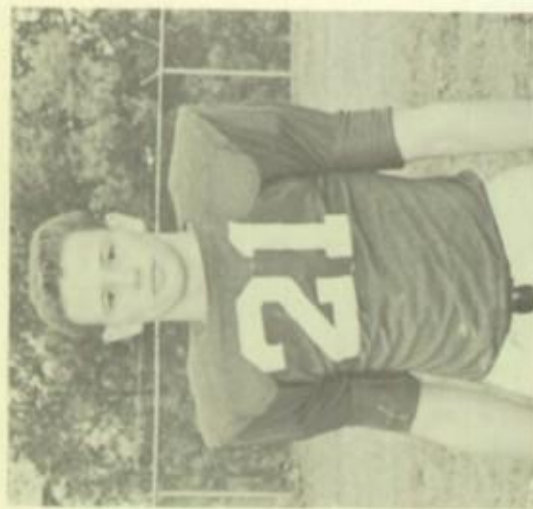

This year's Wildcats, with seven returning lettermen, opened with a win but had one of the poorest team finishes in several Rosedale seasons. The Cats ended the year with a 3-5-1 overall record and finished fourth in the Eastern Kansas league. Rosedale managed to score 78 points, while their opponents racked up 142. Early in the season the Wildcats

Now in his sixth year as head coach, Mr. Walter Davies has directed the Rosedale football team to a 32-18-3 overall record. This year's team, the first Davies-coached Wildcat squad to fail to win the Eastern Kansas league title, placed fourth with an overall record of 3-5-1. The Wildcats scored 78 points to their opponent's 142, while being shut out by four different rivals.

were picked to win the league, but all hopes for another championship ended when Rosedale was severely beaten by Turner, 19 to 0, while Bonner Springs dropped Olathe to take undisputed first and the crown which Rosedale had dominated for many years. The Cats were shut out by four teams this season, Ward, Miege, Turner, and Argentine.

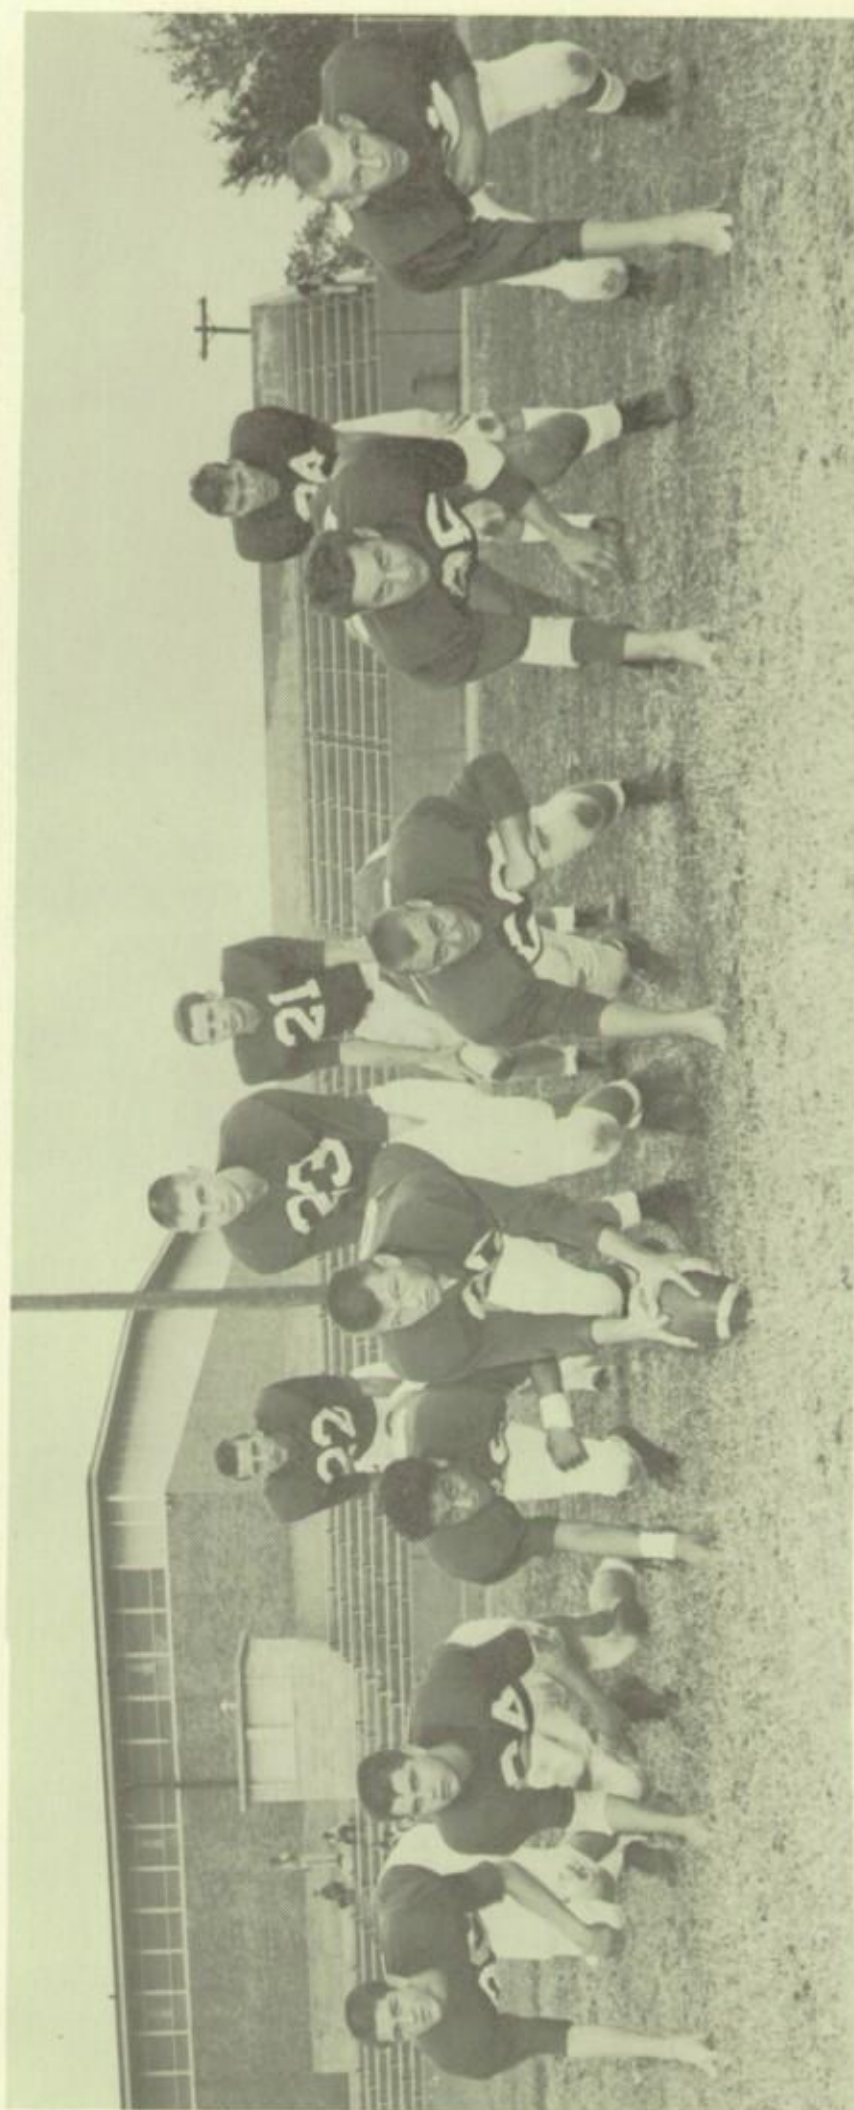

Above is the Rose-dale captain for the 1960 season, All-State first team choice, Dave Watkins, the only Wildcat to be named to an All-State, All-Star squad.

lettermen at the end position included Bill Floerke, Loren Chace and Ronnie Green, seniors, along with Richard Binns and Bill Larson, juniors. Larson is not pictured. Bob Hines, a senior and Rick Henderson, a junior, lettered at quarterback, while seniors Dick Kerr and Ron Williams, along with juniors Joe Patti and Phillip Bosley, lettered at halfback. Senior fullback Dave Watkins and junior Dale Risker lettered at the same position.

Pictured above is the 1960 B-team squad, coached by Mr. William Sipes. This year's junior varsity had a 3-2 record. They got off to a fast start when they beat Ward, 12 to 7, to avenge the varsity loss. The B-team trounced Bonner, 21 to 0, in a fine exhibition of football. In the third game Argentine topped Rosedale, 6 to 0. Rosedale lost to Bishop Miede, 13 to 7, but the game could easily have gone either way. In the final game Rosedale beat Turner, 14 to 9, with a fine effort from some of the sophomores. Next year's varsity squad will consist mainly of this year's B-team.

Phillip Davis served as the student manager for the 1960 football season.

The Rosedale freshmen ended their season with a 4 loss 2 win record. They were downed by Argentine in the season opener, 14 to 0. In the second game they improved enough to gallop over Bonner, 20 to 6. The third game brought another loss when the freshmen were beaten by Bishop Miede, 12 to 0. Westport barely skimmed over the Wildkittens, 6 to 0, in their fourth encounter. Rosedale squeezed past Turner, 7 to 6, and lost Olathe, 6 to 0, to round out their season. The boys on this year's freshman squad, will be preparing themselves for varsity competition next year. The freshmen were coached by Mr. Richard Kohler.

1961 ALREADY?

But time, here more than anywhere else, hurries along. Hardly has the last football cheer died away, the last homecoming queen been crowned, than basketball, Thanksgiving, and Christmas are upon us. Where has the year gone? Where the time for all those ambitious plans? Organization gives way to "finalization," and worried seniors begin to realize that deadlines are approaching. The year that stretched so endlessly before us has suddenly developed mileposts! There is yet much to be done, but can it be possible? "1961 Already?"

Sweet Music to-

Singing in the school Christmas program, participating in various music festivals, entering the EKL music contest, and working out various song arrangements in class were just a few activities of the senior high chorus.

Swing Music

In addition to the vocal music department, the Pep band represents the instrumental division of the music department. The members of the Pep band are chosen on the basis of their ability, and play at all home basketball games. The band also accompanies the majorettes when they perform their different routines in the school gym. The members of the band range in grades from eighth to seniors.

Mike Olinger, Robert Masters, Steve Harrison, Stephen Keeler, Vincent May.
 Matt Gilmour, Steve Nance, Merle Owens, Larry Lusher, Martha Grimes, Rodney Thompson,
 Mr. William Stoskopf.
 Nona Grimes, Sharon Stephens, Jean Grimes, Rick Roberts, Judy Harper.

Advanced singers from the senior high chorus are chosen for the robed choir. Individual tryouts are held to determine the members of the group, which participates in the EKL music festival and sings for various dedications and meetings throughout the year. There are soloists and ensemble groups selected from this group who participate in individual contests.

The junior high chorus includes members of the junior high vocal classes, from which students are chosen for the various programs. This is a mixed group which participates in several activities throughout the year, and assists at special programs such as Christmas and Easter.

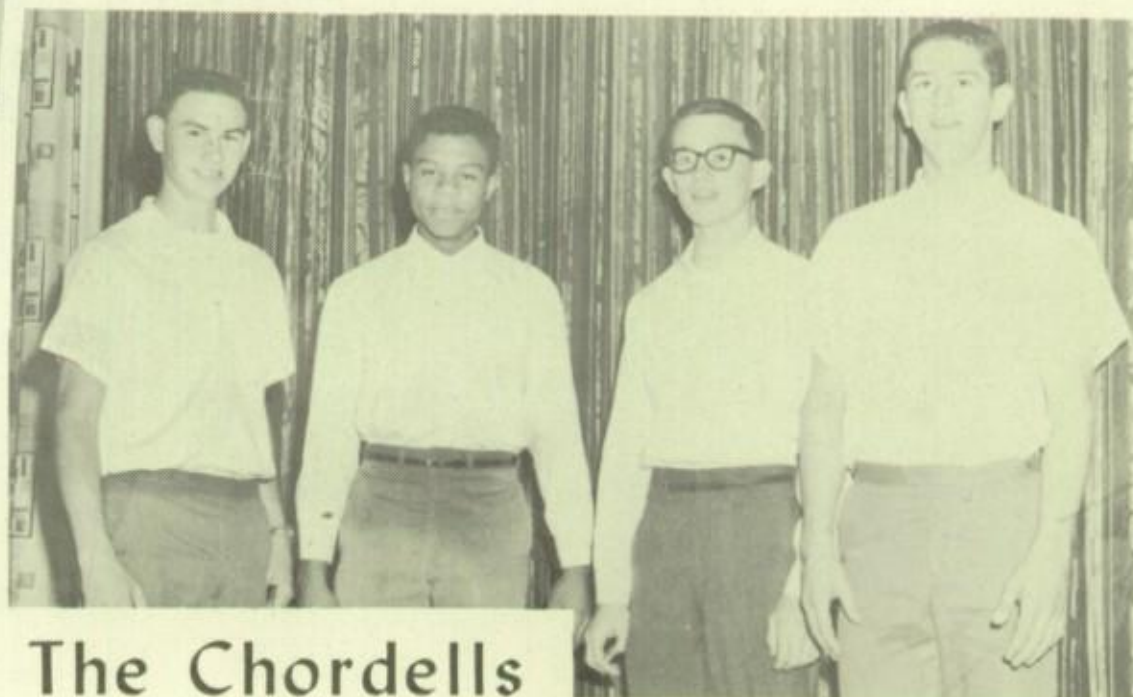

Members of the Thespian club participated in school plays or drama class productions throughout the year. In order to gain membership in this club one must acquire a certain number of points. A specified number of lines in a production, or two roles in different productions are required for membership. Pictured above, back row are: Steve Gray, Terry Hughes, Robert Masters, and Bob Hines. Center row: Mr. James Shepherd, sponsor; Joy Wright; Rose

The remaining pictures on the page are exchange assembly groups. Pictured center left is the cast for the drama class production, "The Bald Soprano." Lower left is a singing group known as the Chordells. These groups presented their music and drama at different schools during the course of the year.

The Chordells

German Club

The German and Delphian clubs stem from language arts classes, Delphian from the senior English classes and the German club from the German classes. Both groups try to initiate a better appreciation for the art of language. The officers of the fourth hour Delphians were Matt Gilmour, president, Ron Williams, vice-president, and Linda Dotson, secretary. The sixth hour officers were Don Spoeneman, president, Walter Swanson, vice-president, and Sandra Carter, secretary.

German club officers were Philip Seaton, president; Linda Logan, vice-president; Rochelle Powell, secretary; and Susie Cornelius, treasurer.

Delphian

National Forensic League members are chosen from the debate and speech classes. They learn the art of speaking clearly and effectively through the activities they perform in this club, in class, and in competition with other schools. These three clubs are sponsored by respectively, Miss Alice McTaggart, Delphian; Mrs. Vivian Mortimer, German club; and Mr. David Axon, NFL.

Senior Y-Teens

Kindness, consideration, and sportsmanship are just a few of the goals aimed for by the Y-Teens. These girls are joined together to have fun and to make life better for other people. They may visit rest homes throughout the year to cheer up the patients with favors or songs, or may go swimming, bowling, or initiate some service activity within the school. Officers of the senior high Y-Teens were Sharon Hutton, president; Donna Dennett, vice-president; Gail Brougham, treasurer; and Nancy Boyle, secretary. Miss Edith Youmans sponsors the group.

The junior high Y-Teens club is almost a duplicate of the senior high. Their goals and aims are the same, but their activities and projects are confined to the junior high classes. Christmas caroling, cookie sales, and social events throughout the year are some of their activities. Officers of the club were Sarah Needham, president; Sally Needham, vice-president; Vickie Phillips, secretary; and Jeanie Crystal, treasurer. Sponsor of the senior high is Miss Edith Youmans and of the junior high group Miss Miriam Perry.

 B. Chace, G. Hawks, Mr. Ralph Brightwell, Mr. George Hiatt, sponsors.

Fun and work are mixed with pleasure in the Hi-Y. The Hi-Y, like the Y-Teens, is organized to help the members become better citizens and work toward greater consideration of other people's feelings. The club has a basketball team which competes against other schools' Hi-Y teams. Officers of the senior Hi-Y were Loren Chace, president; Terry Hughes, vice-president; Robert Masters, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Floerke, chaplain.

The junior high Hi-Y acts in the same fields as the senior high. They, too, have a basketball team and engage in interschool games. It is the aim of this club to help the boys grow educationally in their work. Officers of the junior high Hi-Y are Stephen Keeler, president; Gregg Elliott, vice-president; Don Hughes, secretary; Danny Davies, treasurer; Dwayne Murray, chaplain; and Stephen Harrison, sergeant-at-arms.

These Groups

Leaders of the Safety club are the members of the Safety Council. This executive committee, consisting of representatives from each senior high home-room, directs and promotes the various activities of the Safety club throughout the year. Some of the activities of the club are marking safety zones, petitioning for safety signs, and attending the annual safety conference at Topeka. Members of the Safety Council were Bill Carter, Butch Enderle, Mickey Fracol, Carlyn Wright, Ronnie Davis, Richard McNeil, Rita Bamburg, Jeannie Rippetoe, Annette Strong, Sandra Lusher, Richard Binns, Jerry Owens, Steve Geer, Carol Ladd, Doris Stinnett, Nela Humbird, Jesse Dominguez, Bob Scholl, Mike Walberg, Larry Lusher, Richard Hinkle, and Sandra Carter. Officers of the Safety club were Bob Hines, president; Jack Kirkendoll, vice-president; Bill Horner, treasurer; Charlene Humbird and Sandy Rippetoe, secretaries.

Seek Safety

A high school branch of the Campfire girls is the Horizon club. This club is organized from advanced Campfire girls who meet twice a month to render their services. Some of their activities from the group standpoint are bowling, skating, swimming, and club parties. These girls work on projects in the club that will help them earn more awards in their Campfire work. The officers of the club were Bertha Fracol, president; Sharon Harvey, vice-president; and Winona Duroche, secretary-treasurer.

Bandages

Hopeful Florence Nightingales may join the Future Nurses club, which usually involves work in nursing practice during members' free periods. These girls also staff the health center during the course of a school day. The officers of the club were Linda Heitman, president; Sandra Armstrong, vice-president; Nancy Boyle, secretary and Martha Novak, treasurer. The sponsors are Mrs. Sue Klingler and Mrs. JoAnn Baird.

Typewriters

Would anyone like to be a secretary, stenographer, or typist? This is usually the goal of Commercial club members. In order to become a member students must be enrolled in secretarial practice. The club meetings are held during class time and the members discuss and learn as much as they can about the business world. They strive for goals such as high shorthand speeds, as well as accurate typing. Officers of the club were Rhoda Gorthy, president; Sandra Nauman, vice-president; Sandra Carter, secretary, and Sharon Hutton, treasurer.

L. Haviland, P. Cook, K. Harms, R. Powell, S. Warren, S. Burton. S. Carter, S. Hutton, S. Nauman, R. Gorthy, Miss Olga Alber, sponsor.

Books

Students expressing a desire to become teachers join the Future Teachers club. These girls, and sometimes boys, meet once every two weeks. Their main objective is an exploratory program, where senior members observe in various classes as student teachers for six weeks. During their regular meetings various members give reports from the Future Teacher's magazine. Officers of the club were Bertha Fracol, president; Ruth Ann Blunt, vice-president; Donna Dennett, secretary; Charlene Humbird, treasurer; and Sharen Black, historian.

V. Long, D. Richardson, M. Hawks, M. Mitchell, Miss Alice McTaggart, sponsor. B. Fracol, R. Blunt, D. Donnett, C. Humbird, S. Black.

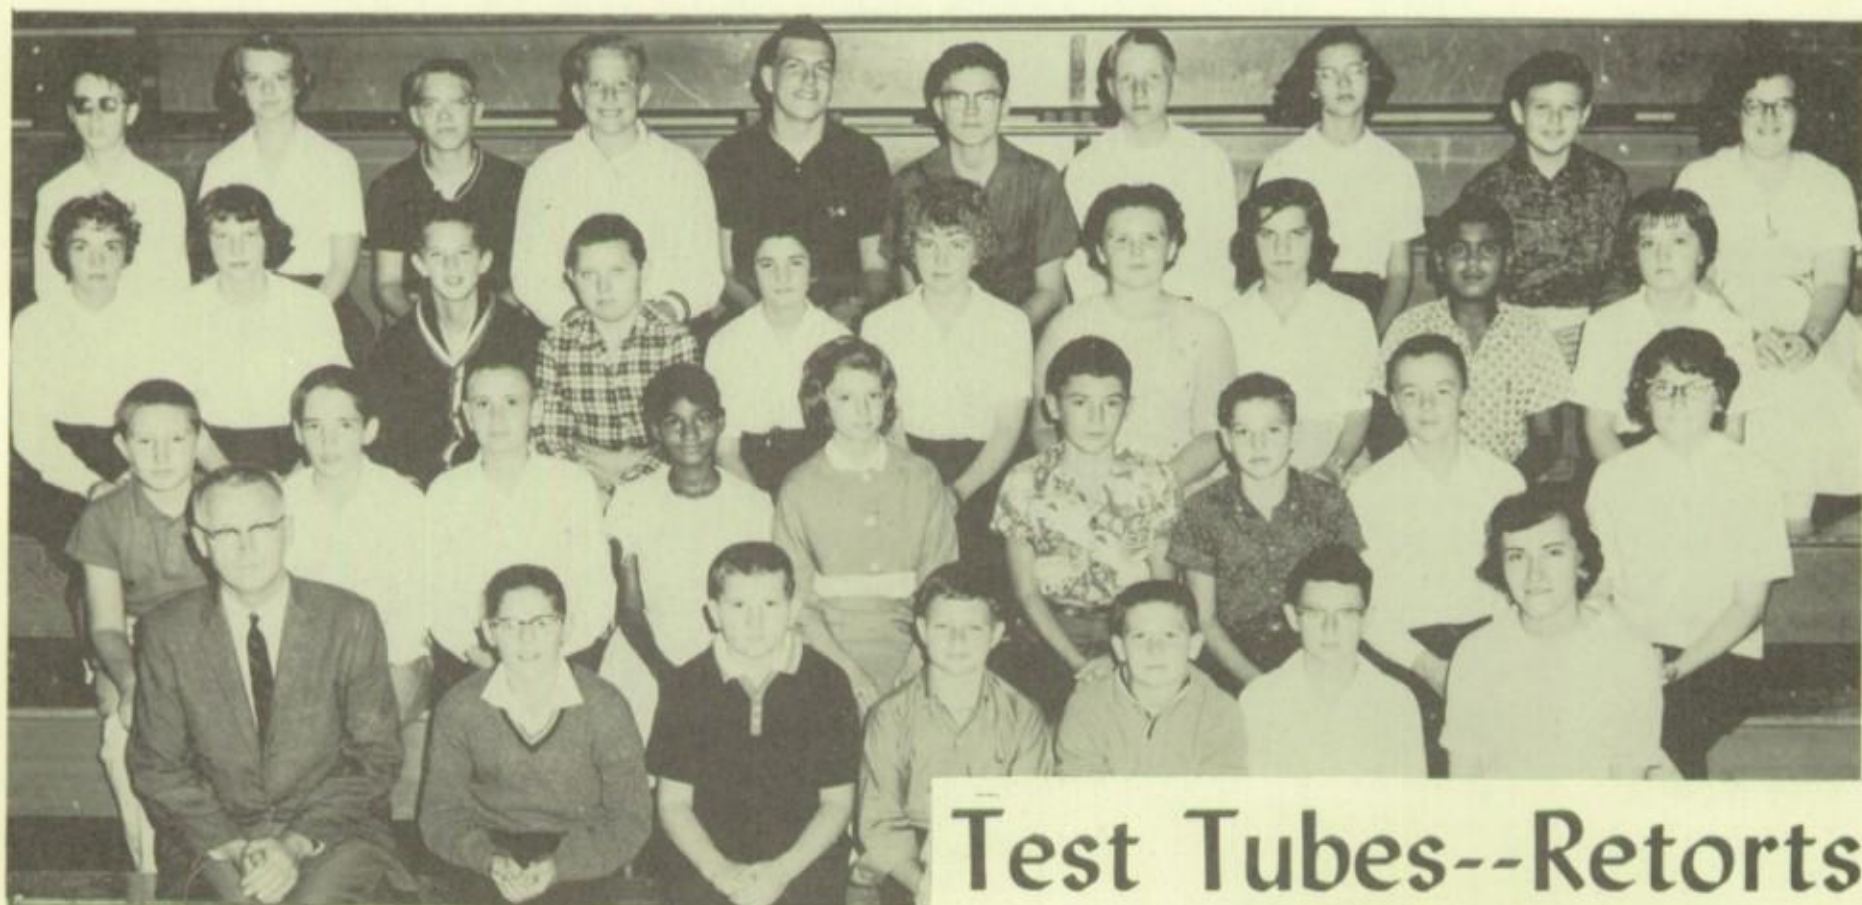

Reactions--Valances

Neutrons, protons, electrons! These typify the areas studied by the science classes and the studies carried over into the Science clubs. Throughout the year, the clubs travel on field trips, visit scientific exhibits, and attend the science convention at the University of Kansas. Science fair projects are discussed and worked on during the club meetings. The senior high club is pictured above, and is directed by Mr. Roscoe Brown and Mr. Frank Howard. Below is the junior high group, sponsored by Mr. George Hiatt and Miss Miriam Perry.

These groups are organized to enable science-minded students to implement and improve their scientific skills. It is educational, but at the same time provides pleasure and encourages further scientific investigation.

Feminine Athletes

Volleyball, basketball, tumbling, apparatus, badminton, deck tennis, and softball are the main activities to which the members of the GAA organization direct their attention.

Athletically inclined girls join this club out of a desire for the enjoyment of the physical exercise. The junior high as well as the senior high have a club organized. The junior high officers are Sharon Murray, president, Mary Lou, vice-president, and Nine Eye, secretary-treasurer.

Athletic days are also part of the GAA program. A team of girls will travel to the different "sports days" during the school year. This year's team was unusually successful, taking first place in a volleyball as well as a basketball tournament.

Officers of the senior high GAA, under the leadership of Mrs. Ernestine Blass, are Janette Strong, president; Annette Strong, vice-president; Anita Abarca, secretary; and Carmen Abarca, treasurer.

Serving as the 1960-61 Mt. Marty editor in charge of the entire book was Miss Judy Harrison. She also held positions on the Rosedalian staff. (Quill and Scroll)

Miss Carolyn Mendenhall served as assistant editor for the Rosedalian first semester and editor second semester. She was also activities editor of the annual. (Quill and Scroll)

Assisting Miss Harrison was Miss Helen Martin, who will become annual editor next year. She was in charge of the teachers' section this year. She also held Rosedalian staff positions. (Quill and Scroll)

Miss Marian Burgett served as Rosedalian editor first semester and took over a proof-reading position second semester. She has been in publications two years.

Bill Batson for the past three years has been Rosedale's faithful photographer. Taking and developing pictures for the Rosedalian and annual has been his constant duty. Bill does this in his spare time.

All papers need business managers and the job was handled this year by (left) Carol Ladd (Quill and Scroll) and Mary Byrd (right). These girls see to it that all bills are collected on time and prepared ad dummies for the Rosedalian.

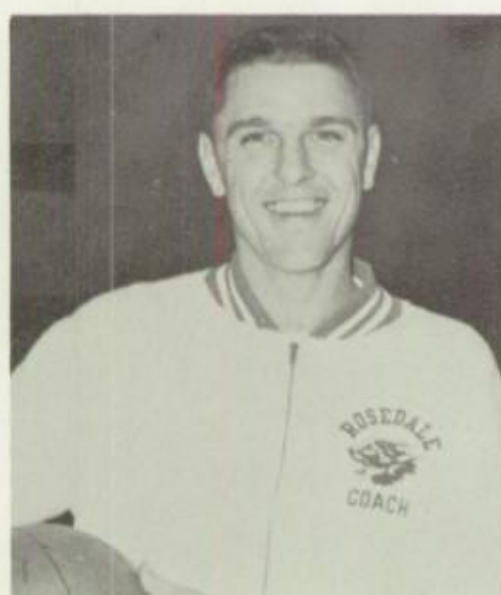

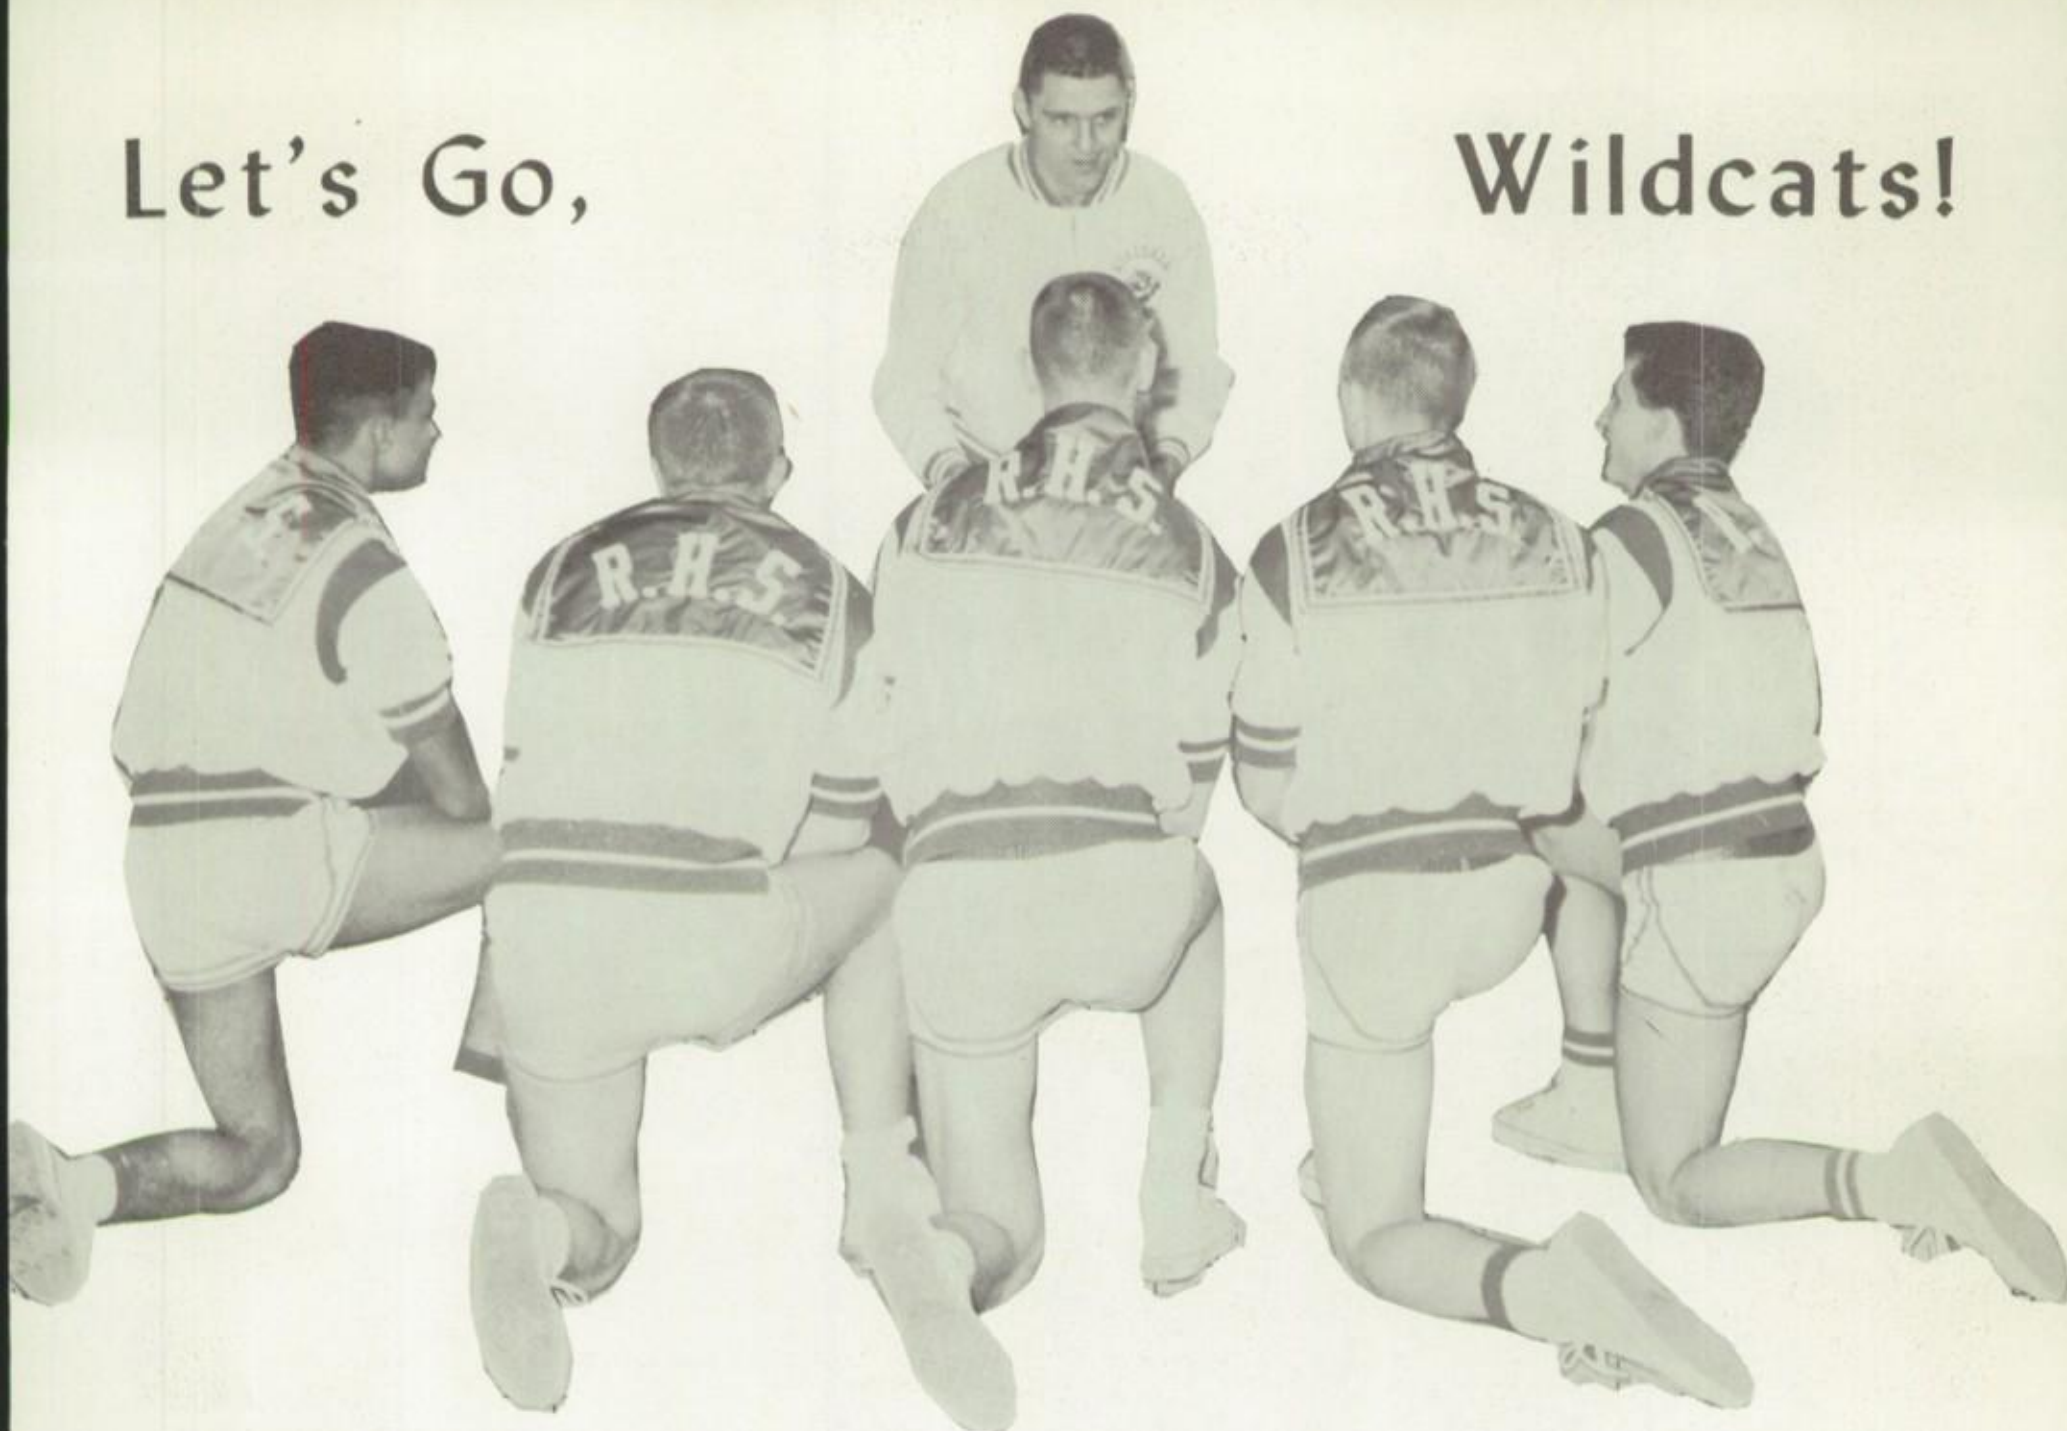

Pictured left to right are: Ronnie Williams, Gary Myers, and Bob Hines (Quill and Scroll) this year's sports staff. Hines served as sports editor first semester with Myers succeeding him second semester. Williams served as their assistant. Hines was sports editor of the annual.

The remaining publications students (left to right) are Deanna Richardson (Quill and Scroll), Sharon Murphy, Joy Wright (Quill and Scroll), and Mary Helen Abbott. Murphy was assistant editor of the paper second semester, Richardson was Rosedalian editor last year, Wright is Rosedale correspondent to The Star and Kansan and circulation editor, and Abbott was class editor of the annual.

Let's Go,

Wildcats!

Eldon Milburn

Pictured at the left is the head coach of the Rosedale Wildcats this season, Mr. Eldon Milburn. Under Mr. Milburn the Cat's compiled a 14 won 7 lost overall record. Finishing third in the EKL race, and downing such highly rated teams as Turner, Sumner, Washington and Ward. The Wildcats played six games this season in which a win or defeat was determined by a two-point margin, winning three of the six. The Cat's accumulated their biggest score of the season when they ran over Olathe, 72 to 29. Although the Rosedarians lost to the top Eastern Kansas league team, Argentine, three times, twice by a two-point spread, they were able to upset Turner, 52 to 51, after suffering an earlier loss, 51 to 49, to the number two EKL team. The Mt.

Marty crew downed Bishop Miege in the opening round of the regional tournament, only to lose to Wyandotte in the semi-finals. The team was able to finish third in the tournament after beating Washington in the consolation game.

BOB DOUGLAS

These boys composed the Rosedale Wildcat's 1960-61 varsity team. This year's squad, although one of the shorter in the area, had great speed and poise. Four senior starters—Dave Watkins, forward, a three-year letterman; Bob Douglas, guard, a two-year letter winner; Dick Kerr, guard, a two-year letterman; and Bob Hines, center, in his first year out for basketball, a one-year letterman—composed the team. The lone junior in the starting line-up was Richard Binns, forward, a one-year letter winner. Top reserves were Jim Whiteside and Bill Larson, forwards, and Keith Straughn, guard, all juniors.

Douglas and Watkins were the only two returning starters from last year's squad.

The B-team got off to a slow start, losing to Sumner in the opener, but came back with a 29 to 24 win over Washington. The B-team lost two games to Ottawa, the first in a thrilling 48 to 47 duel. They downed Bonner Springs, Leavenworth and Olathe twice, while losing to Argentine two times. The first loss to Argentine was 37 to 34. The reserves split with Turner, losing a game and winning one. They lost to Ward on the home court, 43 to 41, but rounded out the season in a winning way by defeating Westport.

Many of the players on this year's team were stand-outs, and should receive starting positions on next year's varsity.

The freshmen basketball squad compiled a 3 won 9 lost overall season record. Although the record was not one of the best in the city, the frosh managed to take a surprise second in the EKL freshman tournament held at Turner. In the first duel the frosh met the favored Turner crew and with fine efforts from James Ramsey and Carl Kegler downed them, 21 to 16. Going into the finals the frosh met Bonner, who defeated the Wildkittens, 22 to 30. Other members of the freshman team were, Ron Shorten (22), Bill Carter (35), Willie Dixon (21), Ramsey (44), Marcus Terrass (32), Larry Tiemann (34), Rudy Florez (24), Kegler (33), Clifford Bliss (23), and Vincent May (20). Those not pictured were Robert Butler and Dale Buchanan. The freshmen were coached by Mr. Ralph Brightwell.

The eighth grade squad ended their season with a 6 won 3 lost record, losing to Northeast, Northwest and Central junior by small margins. The outstanding player for the season was Carter Burns, a guard. Mr. James Cross was the eighth grade coach this year.

The seventh grade had a fairly successful season, compiling a 4 won 2 lost record as they gathered wins from West junior and Argentine, downing both twice. Their two losses were to Central junior. Standouts for the team were Gary Boyce and Steven Wiedner. Mr. Glen Hoy was the seventh grade coach.

The Inspector General

A Russian community during the Victorian age was the setting for the Student Council play, "The Inspector General," a three-act farce by Nikolai Gogol. The play was a political satire that dealt with the supposed inspector general visiting a small Russian town.

The play, the main money raising project for the Student Council this year, was presented December 14 and 15. The proceeds will be used to obtain a foreign exchange student in the future.

Students shown above helped make the play a success. Seated, left to right: Barbara Atwell, assistant stage manager; Tom Duvall, house manager; and Linda Heitman, assistant stage manager. Students standing are, left to right: Gary Crystal, lighting manager; James Florez; Mr. James Shepherd, director; Terry Hughes, stage manager; and Bradley Holman, stage crew.

Lee Haviland, who portrayed the town secretary's daughter, and Matt Gilmour, who played the supposed inspector, were two of the stars of the play.

Judge Tyapkin (Walter Swanson) tries to explain the situation to Artemi Zemlymika (Peggy Cook, right) and Tuka Khlopov (Sharon Hammer, left) while Ukhavyortov (Robert Masters) looks on.

Phillip Seaton as Anton Antonovich, and Debra Morast as Anna Andreyevna, his wife, were the other two stars in the play.

Mr. James Shepherd, shown above in one of his lighter moments, is dramatic coach at Rose-dale. This was Mr. Shepherd's second year as head of the drama department.

Juniors Go "Wilde"!

Since the play had only nine characters, most of the cast was responsible for learning many lines and spending much time on stage. The cast had to acquire an English accent and to acquaint themselves with the mannerisms of the nineteenth century.

SPRING IS ALMOST HERE

Spring, universally the harbinger of a reborn year, marks the dying of the school year. The athletes have moved outdoors again, and the banquet which honored them has come and gone. Balmy air drifts through opened windows, and final exams seem far less important than the opening of the baseball season. There is an air of expectancy mixed with sadness as clubs prepare to wind up their calendar, teachers review achieved or wished-for objectives, and only one grade card is left, lonely and forlorn. It's been a grand year, but "Spring Is Almost Here."

The Sounds--

"Sounds of music" from all over the world are played by the Rosedale orchestra. They play folk music, theme songs, romantic songs, and sweet mellow songs that create a mood.

The orchestra presented its annual winter and spring concerts in combination with the band. The winter concert included works of contemporary American composers and a light type of music that appealed to the general public. Featured as soloists in this concert were Matt Gilmour playing "Trumpeter's Lullaby," by Leroy Anderson, and Nona Grimes, who presented a clarinet solo, "Pipe Dream," by Grundman.

The spring concert was composed of a somewhat brighter type of music. Featured were Robert Masters on the drums in a solo called "Drum Beat Jamboree." A trumpet trio consisting of Martha Grimes, Phil LaHue, and Matt Gilmour, played the tune,

"The Three Jets."

The band played an overture, "Peter Schmool," by Von Weber, and "The Sound of Music," from a Broadway hit by Rodgers and Hammerstein. The entire orchestra played "Scheherazade," by Rimsky-Korsakov, the "Ballet Parisien," by Offenbach, and "Two Sketches for Orchestra," by Grundman. The violins did a solo, "Perpetual Motion."

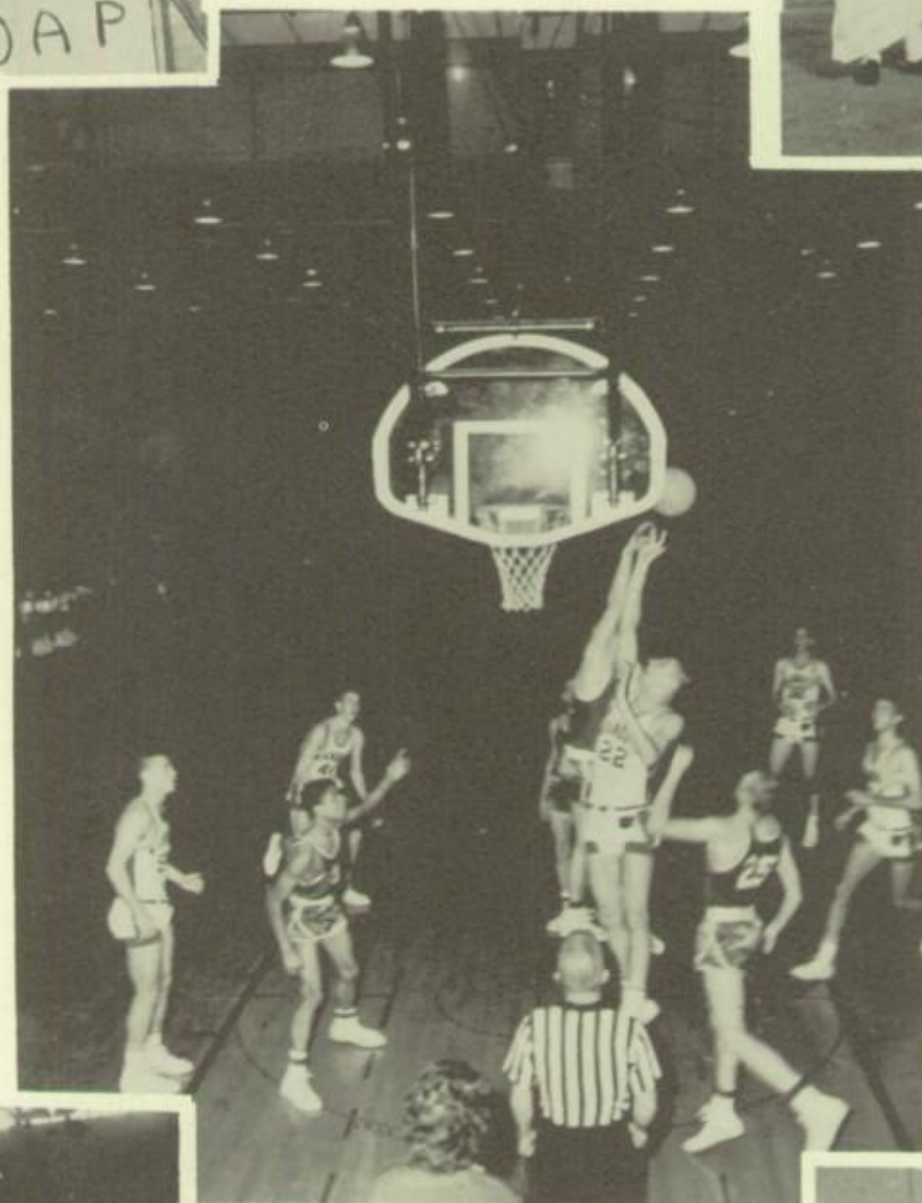

Let's Go, Gang!

Mr. Shepherd, alias Professor Snort, on one of his many campaign tours. This one was between halves of a football game close to election time. Campaign manager for the Professor was the Pep club.

The Wildcats played hard at the tournament at Shawnee Mission East, but had the misfortune to draw the state champion Wyandotte Bulldogs in the second round. Here Bob Hines attempts to block a shot, while Douglas and Binns look on.

Witches, goblins, and all sorts of spooks are conjured up by the Rosedale Wildcats in their fight to haunt "Sissy Stag," alias Bishop Miede. This was another of the Pep club skits, and used the Halloween theme.

Like man, Beatniks here, Beatniks there, crazy Beatniks everywhere! Another of the special Pep club skits.

Hip, Hip, Hurray for Rosedale High! The Pep club and cheerleaders give all they have to show the boys they are with them 100 percent during a lull in one ball game.

Tied for third place in the annual talent show were Keith Straughn, Bob Douglas, Matt Gil-mour, and Bill Floerke, the boys' quartet.

Tied for third place was a pantomime, "Mr. Custer," given by Jim Harvey, Teddy Geer, John Pattimore, and Sparky Needham.

Jesse Dominguez, second place winner, sang "A-Roving I'll Go." His accom-panist was Joyce Keeler.

The Pep club talent show is pre-sented annually to give students an opportunity to display their talent and to raise money for the Pep club's expenses. The winners are chosen by a panel of faculty and students. Seven other entries competed in the show, plus complimentary numbers by the B-team and varsity cheer-leaders.

The "Night Rockers," Matt Gil-mour, Bob Masters, and Tollie Sumner, took first place this year with their rock-and-roll trio.

"Christmas With Our Children's Children" was presented by the drama department to help spread the spirit of Christmas. The cast was, left to right: C. Close, S. Gray, K. Burks, V. Olinger, and B. Chastain.

Well, somebody has to do it!

"Oh come on now, you can do it! Just one more time!"

You just don't find models like these every day! And perhaps it's just as well you don't!

"The Chordells" prove school spirit isn't dying.

In And Around Old RHS

Who was the "old Scrooge" who said there isn't any Santa Claus? Santa and the German club know better.

Artists -- and Miscellaneous

Brush and Pencil club members contribute much individual talent for posters, bulletin boards, showcases, and many other projects around Rosedale, and also participate in contests. Members are left to right, back row: Phil Novick, Bill Batson, Richard Binns. Second row: Annette Strong, Debra Morast, Sandy Rippetoe, Nancy Boyle. Front row: Winona Duroche, Miss Beverly Semmens, sponsor, and Yvonne Parisa.

Do you know these feet? Even though the people aren't identified the feet belong to two junior high students enjoying one of the junior high sock-hops.

THE CUSTODIANS

THE CLERKS

Miss Joyce Keeler, president of the Martyan Pep club, was mistress of ceremonies at the athletic banquet, "Then and Now," in the cafeteria March 29. The banquet is given annually by the Pep club in recognition of lettermen and their coaches.

Students at one of the tables eyeing the photographer are Sandy Nauman, Deanna Richardson, Dick Clark, and Paul Johnston.

Mr. Ernie Mehl, sports editor of The Kansas City Star, was the main speaker at the banquet.

Then and Now

Parents of the athletes also attended the banquet. Shown above are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hines with a few "souvenirs."

Head Coach

This year's track squad, with 13 returning lettermen under the direction of Mr. Art Lawrence, gave promise of another good season. The squad had two returning lettermen in Dave Watkins, low-hurdler and dash man, and Bob Hines, broad jumper, who competed in the state meet last year. These two served as the nucleus for the Wildcats' cinder team. The 'Cat's counted on several other consistent point winners in Bill Floerke, javelin thrower; Rick Henderson, miler; and Earl Wells, quarter miler. Coach Lawrence expected this year's season to be as successful as the 1960 season. He felt that the entrance of Argentine into the Eastern Kansas league might be a hindrance to Rosedale, for the Argentine depth could cut Rosedale out of a few third, fourth, and fifth places, but in his opinion Turner promised to be Rosedale's biggest threat in the league.

Each boy in his specific event was capable of picking up valuable Rosedale points. The first seven pictured are seniors who were considered consistent competitors. The remainder are juniors except for Murray, a sophomore. (Left) This year's junior high track squad had one of the largest pre-season turnouts of any Wildkitten squad. Coach for the team is Mr. Richard Kohler. The Kittens finished third to Argentine and Olathe in their first meet of the season.

Athletes' Reward

The R-Club, above, is a group of varsity lettermen who have received at least one varsity letter in one of the five sports offered at Rosedale: football, basketball, track, golf, and cross country. Some of the club's money-raising projects to benefit the insurance fund were selling candy at all home basketball games, and sponsoring a wheel chair basketball game. Mr. William Sipes served as head sponsor, assisted by Mr. Glen Hoy and Mr. Eldon Milburn.

Putt and Chip

Pictured below are the boys who made up this season's golf team. The squad, although inexperienced this year, had something to look for in the future since most of the boys were underclassmen. The head golf coach is Mr. Roscoe Brown. Top row (left to right): Coach Brown, David Poore, Gary Myers, Dixon Leavers, Tom George, and Bill Smith. Second row (left to right): Bernard Northcutt, Bill Ehlers, James King, Mike Olinger and Gregory Hansen.

SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY!

To one group in school spring is more than a season of the year. For them it marks the end of a cycle, a coming of age which brings with it new responsibilities and new challenges. This spring is a last goodbye—to friends, to a way of life they will never again know, to familiar halls and friendly classrooms, to teachers they have come to know and respect, to a cozy world that has been safe—secure. Ahead lies the unknown, but for a few brief hours they can relive the adventures, recapture the thrills, re-enact the triumphs. This is their hour of achievement, and to the seniors "It Seems Like Yesterday."

Seniors

Class of '61

The class of 1961 has the distinction of being the first group to have spent its entire six years of high school under the direction of Mr. Carter L. Burns, principal.

The seniors have seen a new building constructed, and have watched with pride the forward strides made by the students of Rosedale high school. Although not always responsible for the success of a project, members of the senior class have been interested spectators in the expansion of the curriculum and the growth of the extra-curricular activities.

What will the class of '61 remember about their years at Rosedale? We will remember.....

MARY ABBOTT — "Inner sunshine warms not only the heart of the owner, but all who come in contact with it."

JOE AVILA—"Man is the artificer of his own happiness."

CHARLES BALDWIN—"The greater man, the greater courtesy."

JAMES BARROW — "Every man's affairs, however small, are important to himself."

SHELIA BERNITZ—"Do but look on her hair; it is bright as love's star when it riseth."

RUTH ANN BLUNT—"Politeness is the chief sign of culture."

WAYNE BOLES—"Happy is the man who knows his follies in his youth."

BILL BULVA — "Common sense is very uncommon."

MARIAN BURGETT—"She was as good as she was fair."

MARTHA BURKE — "The soul of sweet delight can never be defil'd."

SHARON BURTON — "The great mind knows the power of gentleness."

SANDRA CARTER—"A lovely lady garmented in light."

LOREN CHACE — "Every man is the maker of his own fortune."

MARJORIE CHAMBERS — "A good heart lives long."

LOREN CLOSE—"Doing good is the only certainly happy action of a man's life."

MARTHA COLLINS—"She moves a goddess and she looks a queen."

The Action. . .

The excited cheering crowd around you as the Wildcats became state champs of Class A in 1955-56 . . .
 The champion debate team in the year 1959-60 . . .

The Senior Year. .

The realization of the load of responsibilities placed on our shoulders . . .

The last year to sit in the football stadium as a student of Rosedale high school . . .

The serious plans for the future in the minds of many students . . .

The junior-senior prom presented in honor of our class by the junior class . . .

These are our memories.

The Expectations. . .

Each senior approaches the end of his high school career with the realization that soon class ties will be no more. Gone are the assemblies, the laughter of high school friends, and many other things which have been a part of his life.

The students of the class of '61 will leave Rosedale to go their own ways, whether to college, to raise a family, or to enter a chosen occupation. The high school years have come and gone; the future holds in store a new life of adulthood.

In future years may this book and all it contains bring back pleasant memories of a high school life.

GERALDINE WATSON —
"Thinking a smile all the time will keep your face youthful."

JOHN WILEGUS—"Men are polished through act and speech."

RONNIE WILLIAMS—"The world knows nothing of its greatest men."

LARRY WISEMAN — "The pleasure of life is according to the man that lives it."

JOY WRIGHT — "Beauty is power; a smile is its sword."

Several members of the class of '61 have either left Rosedale or moved to another district. Pictures of these persons do not appear. Others did not have their pictures taken, and so could not be included in this section.

Those students who did not have their pictures taken are Frank Alcanter, Bradley Holman, Phillip Novick, David Reyes, and John Wilson. Others not pictured are Wilma Hamons, Linda Hughes, Sue Murray, John Spencer, and Tollie Sumner.

National Honor Society

On this page are sixteen students who have achieved the highest honor available to a high school student, membership in the National Honor society. From these students Karen Harms was selected valedictorian, and Linda Dotson, salutatorian.

This honor is distinctly theirs, yet in a large sense it is that of the class also, for within the framework of their group they were offered opportunities for service.

To the iceberg
- Billie Jo

Steve,
Best wishes in your future. Have fun during your vacation.
Hope to see you in band
next year. Blanche Long

To a smart kid with a lot of talent. Keep working on that trombone.
Good luck, Steve, in your future years at Rosedale. Have fun this summer. See early on the girls -

Corky

Steve,
Lots of luck in the future and especially at R.H.S. I want to see you next year and I will meet you at the bar H.A. H.A.

To the nicest and best pal I've ever had. Thanks a million for putting up with
me. This summer we'll have the best fun
a guy has (or we'll try to have fun). Steve you'll have to come over a little more often and sooner. We can also start on our tree house and you can bet it will be a Lu-Lu of a tree house.
We'll also be in band next year, I'm looking forward to that.

Yours Truly
Steve Nance "64"

Lots of Luck to

To a real nice
guy. I have had fun in History and
band with you.
Good luck to you
with Billy to see you next year in band.
Rosemary Carney

To a very nice boy
who plays the trombone
very good. Keep up the good work.
Joyce Grant

Here,
With an attitude such as yours,
I found to cause a regret,
I regret, for a regret,

For a request today!
For a request boys ever,
For a request boys ever,
For a request boys ever.
